

SRI PADMAVATI MAHILA VISVAVIDYALAYAM
(Women's University)
COMPUTER CENTRE

A brief introduction to the centre including Aim/objectives / purpose

The University Computer Centre was established in the year 1986. The present world scenario of Information Technology is the world is in our fist. To compete the present scenario Computer Centre facilitates the Staff, Research Scholars and Students of the University.

The Computer Centre supports Research Scholars and students with necessary software and assistance to meet the fast changes in the IT world.

Research scholars of the University access e-journals provided by e-shodh Sindhu.

Workshops, Refresher courses, Orientation programs and Seminars conducted by various departments of the University are supported by Computer Centre.

DEC & IGNOU centres take advantage of the computer centre facilities for their practical.

Various other departments like AP Treasury & SARVA SHIKSHA ABHYAN utilize the computer centre for their workshops and seminars.

Infrastructure facilities

The Centre has Server, around Sixty Systems, Six Printers and LCD Projector. The Servers & Systems are connected through well supported UPS.

FUTURE PLANS

- To organize and conduct short term courses.
- To co-ordinate centres of other Universities for exchange of expertise and software
- Adopt for Consultancy
- To be a model for other universities.